Access and Use: The Otis Historical Archives is committed to providing open access to its collections as far as possible within the limits of privacy and confidentiality. Access to this collection is at the discretion of the Otis Historical Archives and material contained within the records may be subject to review before access is granted. Files containing private patient information and protected administrative and grant records are currently closed to researchers.

Series/Scope and Content Note: Dr. Marc M. Micozzi served as director of the Museum from 1986 to 1995. During his tenure the Museum's name was changed to the National Museum of Health and Medicine in 1988 and its staff expanded. Micozzi worked for the formation of the National Museum of Health and Medicine Foundation in 1989 and its campaign to relocate the Museum to the National Mall. He also participated in the organization of the National AIDS Exhibit Consortium, a forensic education class with other Museum staff, and the Journal of Alternative and Complementary Medicine. The collection includes office records, grant applications, material on the National Museum of Health and Medicine Foundation and campaign to relocate the museum, AIDS exhibit records, personnel files and organizational charts, fund-raising records, correspondence, alternative medicine information, forensic materials, and some records of Micozzi's previous positions.
