

SCOUT DAY

AT THE MEDICAL MUSEUM

SATURDAY,
OCTOBER 15, 2016
10 AM - 12 PM

Join the National Museum of Health and Medicine for a morning of specialized activities for both Boy and Girl Scouts. Scouts will visit activity stations focused on first aid badge requirements, including triage, outdoor injuries, medical response, first aid kits and emergency responders.

This program is free and open to the public! Recommended for all ages.
