THE AIR FORCE MEDICAL SERVICE; Building Competent, Capable Enlisted Airmen

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 6-7 PM

Enlisted medical Airmen have proven to be the backbone to the Air Force Medical Service's motto, "Trusted Care, Anywhere." Wherever the U.S. Air Force goes, enlisted medical Airmen are in close reach supporting Global Vigilance, Global Reach, and Global Power for America. CMSgt David J. Little, Headquarters Air Force, Chief, Medical Operations and Research, will highlight the essential ability for the Air Force Medical Service to technically and professionally develop our most precious resource in support of the United States Air Force and Joint Service missions.
