“BED BUGS, MOSQUITOES, TICKS: URBAN PESTS AND THEIR IMPACT ON OUR HEALTH”

A PRESENTATION BY HAROLD HARLAN, PH.D.

Pests have a major impact on our health and well-being. During National Pest Management Month join the National Museum of Health and Medicine and Harold Harlan, Ph.D., from the Armed Forces Pest Management Board, to learn about mosquitoes, ticks, filth flies, rodents and bed bugs. Live and preserved specimens will be on view as part of the program.
